

New color designation approved by BLU

BSi-Black, Silver

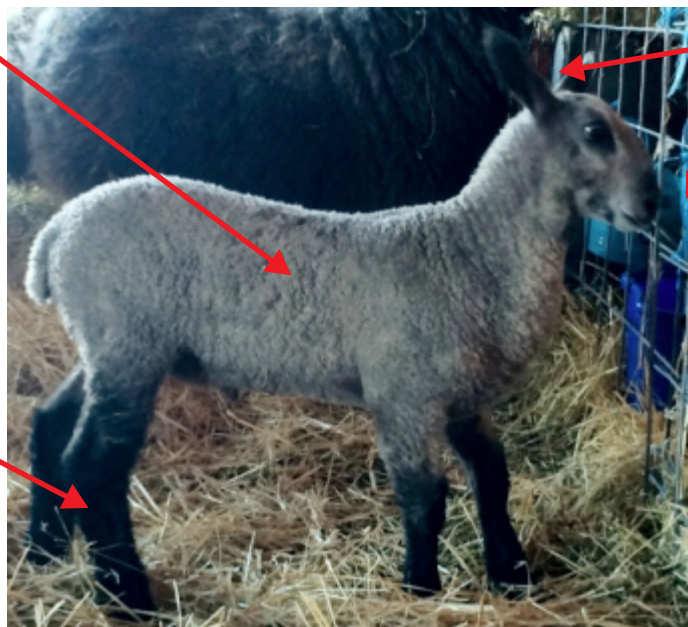

These lambs are born with dark faces and legs and lighter grey or silver bodies. They have varied patterns of white/silver on faces and legs. As adults, their wool fades to off-white. They are considered natural colored, and are registered as such.

Characteristics of new BSi-Black, Silver color designation.

Lighter grey or silver body

New BSi-Black, Silver

Darker facial features and ears

Darker legs

Versus

Varying amounts of white or silver markings on saddle

BP- Black Patterned (with silver saddle)

Varying amounts of white or silver markings on face

(remainder of body, legs and head black in color)